Great School Libraries

‘A Great School Library is a place that is inclusive of all children - quiet, full of exciting attractions, exhibitions and technology, with welcoming, enthusiastic and knowledgeable staff who are part of the whole school team. Reading is the first stage of learning, school libraries have such an important role in providing access to learning. Reading (and libraries) can excite individuals and groups to learn, they are a significant resource for all staff, children and parents.’
